FEBRUARY 2019

Hope you had a Super Sunday because it is going to be a Super month ahead for American Sokol, Washington D.C. We have some great events lined up including our annual fundraiser, Sibrinky to be held at the Embassy of the Czech Republic. Details for Sibrinky (tickets are limited and going FAST!!!) and other events and happenings are inside the newsletter. Take a look. And, stay warm!!! That is unless you are joining us for the Annual Baca Cup ski race. Then get cold and come inside afterward to get warm.

Special guests visiting our school.

What a treat for the Sokol and the School to host an evening for two honored guests!

Oldrich Lomecky, Vice President Czech Sokol Prague

On January 25, Oldrich Lomecky, Vice President Czech Sokol Prague, paid the school a visit. The students, teachers, and volunteers led by Lucie Berankova took Oldrich through the school demonstrating the impact that we are having on Czech and Slovak children in the D.C. Area.

Czech painter, Roman Kameš. Roman leads children workshops around the world including an annual workshop for local children in Ladakh, in the western Himalaya mountains. Roman was impressed by the 'incredible spontaneity' of the children of the school as compared to some of the other regions he has led workshops including in Europe and Asia.
