CAMPING

SATURDAY, JUNE 6

Whether you hiked or not, join us for camping at a nearby Low Water Bridge Campground by the Shenandoah River. Our American Sokol Washington, DC will cover the camping fee for all members.

Bring a tent, a sleeping bag, food, and utensils. The campground has drinking water and bathrooms with showers. We'll have cooking equipment and a stove to share. Enjoy roasted sausages on the fire and sing with us campfire songs. Music instruments are welcome.

Location: Low Water Bridge Campground
192 Panhandle Road, Bentonville, VA 22610

Time: Arrive anytime on Saturday, June 6
Our reservation is under the name "Zuzana from Sokol"

CANOEING

SUNDAY, JUNE 7

CANOE AND KAYAK TRIP

This is an adventure on one of America's most beautiful rivers as you paddle through the Shenandoah Valley. The minimum age is 5 with close parental supervision.

We plan a 12-mile, 5-hour trip with stops (duration may vary with water conditions). Optional: Compton Rapids (class I-II).

Remember to bring plenty of water, food, and sunscreen.

American Sokol will provide a 10% group discount for all who RSVP, in addition to 20% discount for Sokol members.

Location: Downriver Canoe Company
884 Indian Hollow Road, Bentonville, VA 22610

Time: 9:30 AM

RSVP By Monday, June 1, at events@sokolwashington.org to secure a free camping spot and a watercraft with a 10% group discount for all, in addition to 20% discount for our Sokol members.

QUESTIONS? The event organizers, Petr Stanek and Zuzana Steen will reply to you.
